

Agency of the U. S. of America, Buenos Ayres.

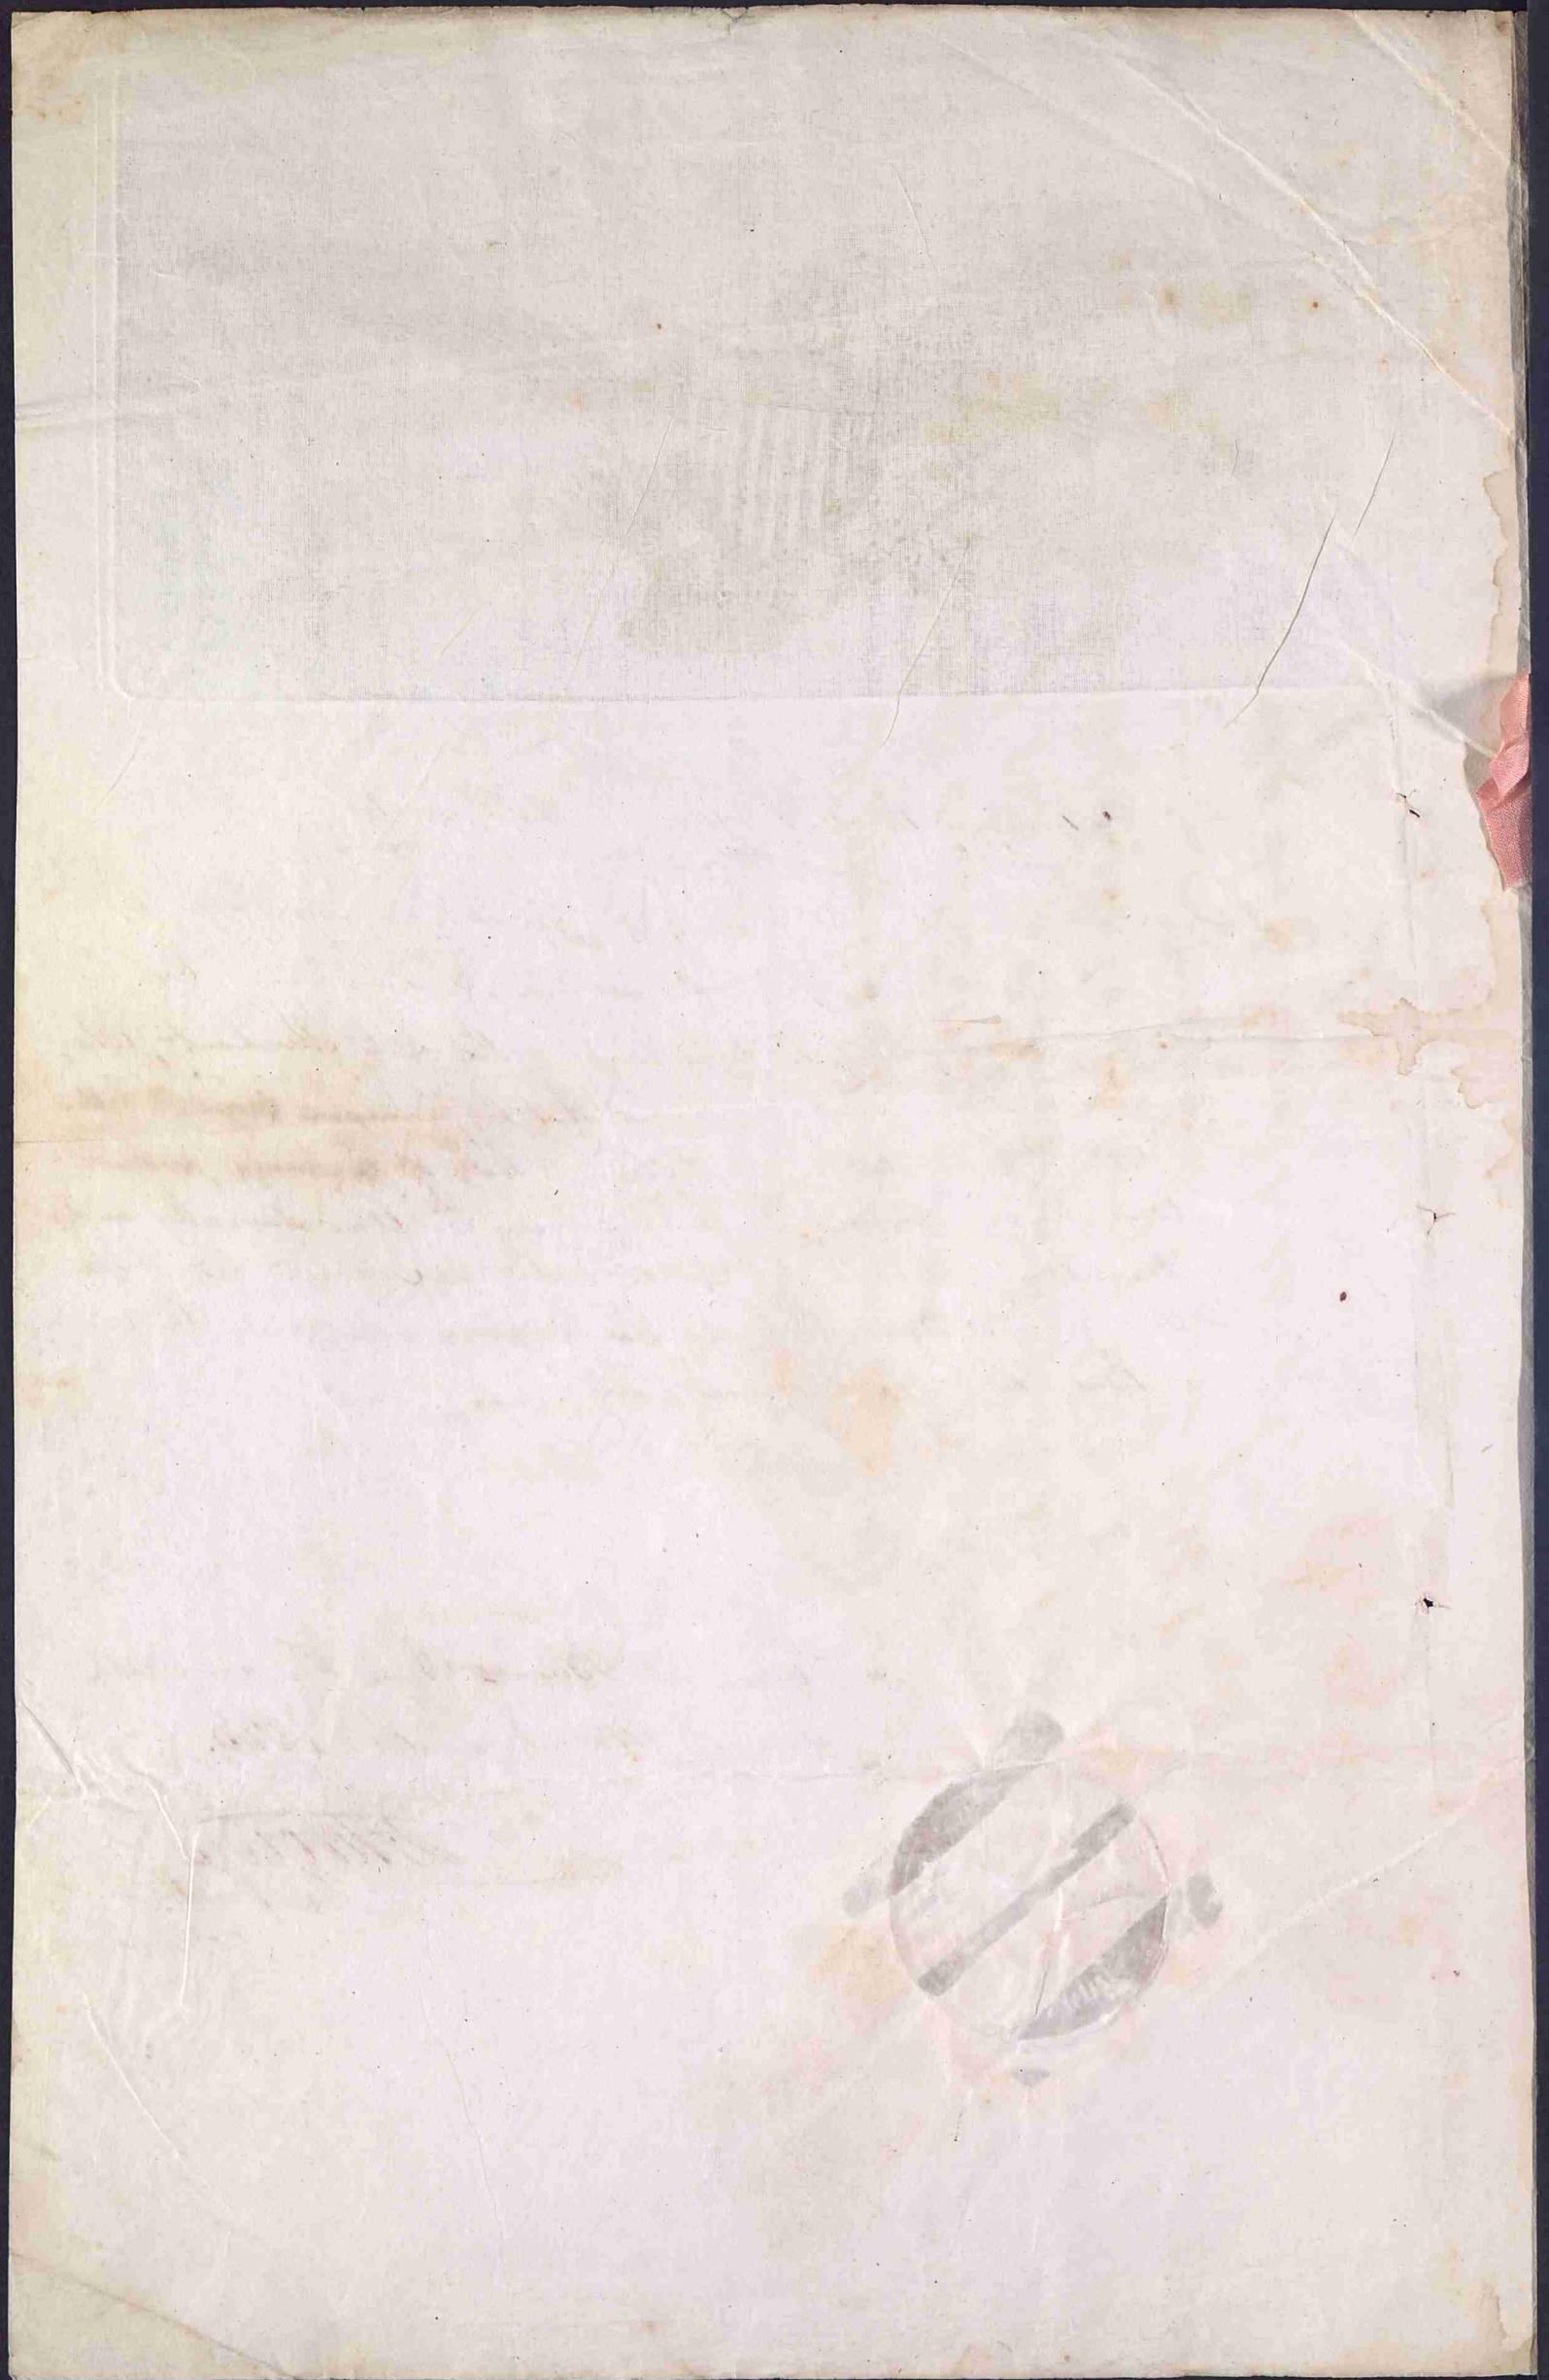

Personally came and appeared before me, John M. Forbes Agent of the U. S. of America, Messieurs James Fornier and William Dunn, both late Clerks in the employ of M<sup>r</sup> Lewis Vermet of this City, merchant, who, being duly sworn, severally deposed that the annexed original letters of Order, bill of lading and several bills of Exchange, which were by me exhibited to the appellants were severally and respectively signed by Captain Peter Lebronce, late of the Brig George Mackintosh, in the presence and under the view of them the said appellants.

Sworn at Buenos Ayres this fourteenth day of March A.D. 1823.
